CORN AND WHEAT ACTIVE.

Goes : p Almost Eight Points at the Opening.

Corn was the interesting feature in cereal markets this morning. There was considerable trading both here and in Chicago. Prices fluctuated rapidly. December opened here at 55 3-4c., a decline of 1-2c., sold up to 561-4c., declined to opening price and then worked up to 561-4c. again. May opened at 55c., a decline of 1-2c., tnen rallied 3-8c., lost and then recovered it, the price at noon being $5 3-8c. a $5 1-2c. The boom seems to have petered out at the West, although the country is still buying considerable corn.

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 14.-Patrick Murphy, a brakeman on the Central Railroad, nearly succeeded in killing Mrs. Henry C. Seafoss last night. Mrs. Scafoss is a widow, and keeps a saloon at the corner of Ward and Hamilton at the corner of Ward and Hamilton streets. She is about twenty-two years old, and remarkably pretty.

Murphy has been attentive to Mrs. Scafoss for some time. Last night he went to the saloon and, according to the bartender's story, struck Mrs. Seafoss in the face with his fist without saying a word. The blow broke her saying a word. The blow broke her nose.

He was hustled out into the street, but soon returned with a heavy iron coupling pin, and proceeded to break everything in the place. He struck Mrs. Seafors twice on the head and then rushed out into the street.

The noise had by this time attracted a large crowd, and as Murphy started to run up the street fully one hundred men started in pursuit. Policemen, women and children joined in the chase, and he was finally captured. Murphy is now in a cell awaiting the result of b'rs. Seafors's injuries. She is seriously, but not fatally, injured.

Frank Burridge, the owner of Terrapin, is much worked up over the fact that the Stewards at Jerome Park intimated that he had been guilty of fraud. On Saturday Terrapin beat the 1 to 6 favorite, Arab. The latter could not raise a decent gallop. Why was not George Forbes questioned instead of Mr. Burridge. Terrapin had been badly ridden in his last few races, but showed steady improvement, and had a better boy up on Saturday.

Harry Jones rode a most amazing race on Black Hawk yesterday, but Sims's work on Ferrier was not much better. In the race they finished in a dead heat through Sims's carelessness, but in the run-off Jones took a very comfortable map and Ferrier won. Jones did not raise a hand to the black colt in the stretch and watched Ferrier pass him with a look that plainly said: "Go on: I won't worry you." Mike Bergen's riding on Stonenellie was a treat; in fact, it was the best race ie ever rode. After the race Mike came within an ace of making victory complete y walloping Sims. The latter accused fergen of crowding him, and smashel Mike in the face. Mike started in to each Sims a lesson, but friends interered. Sims was fined $100 for hitting Bergen.

Pearl Song won in handsome style resterday, and he is capable of beating wen better class three-year-olds. In his ast race Perkins was evidently anxious hat Clementine should win, for he topped riding Pearl Song when he saw hat Fleischman's mare would about win.

Starter Pettingill was a visitor at Sar-toga yesterday. It is his first visit to Saratoga for some time, and he com-mented favorably on the improvement worked in the course. Mr. Pettingill will handle the flag at Latonia's Fall meeting.

Riley is not likely to start in any of he jumping races at Saratoga. He went ame in his work yesterday.

Yo Tambien worked a mile and a quar-er yesterday morning in 2.09. The neeting between her and Ramapo in the doet & Chandon Stakes on Saturday should be well worth witnessing.
